

Not Ready Yet?

Moving to a Condo may not be for everyone. To help you decide, we prepared the following list of items for you to consider:

Yes _____ No

1. Are you over 55 and have the kids left the house?
2. Would you rather walk to the drug store, bank, library, parks and restaurants instead of taking your car?
3. Are you ready to never worry about cleaning gutters, painting, caulking, cleaning, repairing and maintenance?
4. When asked “What did you do last weekend?”, can you say something other than “worked around the house”?
5. Do you now have time to explore and experience all you desire of the Pacific Northwest?
6. Are you spending enough time with friends and family?
7. Would you like to rent a large fully-equipped clubhouse for family gatherings and parties at no cost to you?
8. Would you like to leave for a vacation or weekend get-away by simply closing the front door?
9. Do you know anyone that requires, or in the future may require a wheelchair? Does your current home allow for this?
10. Are you sociable? Would you like being with the group for an occasional pot-luck dinner and/or movie night?
11. Are you ready to exercise on some really great new equipment at no cost and without people watching you?
12. Would you like to pass on valuable real estate to your kids some day (a home of great quality and location)?
13. Are you ready to finally get organized and get rid of all that extra stuff you’ve collected over the years?

14. Are you ready to move to a safe and secure environment (Fire sprinklers, fire and security alarms) – a place where neighbors look out for each other?

Yes No

15. Like to be outdoors? Can you replace gardening with visiting local parks and gardens? Instead of weeding, you could experience a much broader outdoor environment.

16. Are you ready to have new kitchen appliances, bathroom fixtures, gorgeous hardwood and tile, and a comfortable heating and ventilating system?

17. Would you like to become more involved in the community and be closer to your church, bank, shopping, etc.?

18. Are you ready to save money on utility bills and use only what you need?

We don't have an official answer key to this little quiz. But we hope you've come to the conclusion that living in a condo community in a town like Snohomish is a just reward for those of us that are ready for a terrific lifestyle adjustment.

We look forward to having you join the happy condo owners in Snohomish.
